Go north on North Augusta Street. Continue past the library (on the corner of Churchville Ave and North Augusta St.) about ½ mile. Facility is on the left.

Mission:

ComfortCare is a life-affirming, non-profit medical clinic empowering women to make healthy life choices through pregnancy confirmation, peer counseling on pregnancy options, nurse's consultation and STD testing. Founded in 1983 as The Pregnancy Help Center, ComfortCare aids women with practical assistance from a Christian perspective.

Description: This is an evangelical Christian Ministry (Pro-Life) organization. Volunteers must fill out an application. Volunteers are not able to work with the clients unless you work longer than a semester and subscribe to the perspective of the organization.

Volunteers are expected to do:

- Copy work
- Office work pertaining to fundraising, donor receipting, and volunteer correspondence

Notes (per conversation 2002): Client contact is restricted to volunteers and/or staff who make a long term commitment (more than a semester), who are trained to help clients and who are judged to be completely in harmony with the organization's perspective on pregnancy.

This means that most of our volunteers will have no client access, including no chance to answer the telephone. The exception might be students who have chosen to make the greater commitment in addition to their class service.

We support public and private actions that strengthen the appearance of Virginia's landscapes and communities, especially along our highways and byways.

We believe that scenic assets are essential to the cultural and economic health of our Commonwealth.

Description: Scenic Virginia, Inc. is a private, non-profit organization that exists to preserve, protect, and enhance the scenic beauty of the Commonwealth. As the sole advocate for conservation of Virginia's scenic resources, our principal activity is to encourage and support public and private actions that enrich Virginia's extraordinary scenic beauty, particularly along our highways and byways. To this end, we demonstrate to citizens the economic, social, physical, and cultural benefits of preserving our scenic assets

Scenic Virginia undertakes programs that enhance the scenic qualities of both rural and urban landscapes. Working in concert with conservation groups and businesses, we seek ways to preserve scenic beauty in its natural setting. We advise localities on how to protect scenic, historic and cultural resources through appropriate planning. To communities wanting to improve their appearance, we emphasize the economic development opportunities available in the creation and enhancement of scenic approaches to their cities and towns.

Everyone is encouraged to visit our web-site: www.VolunteerFarm.org, check the calendar for dates help is most needed, & sign up to work as many days/hours as they can.

We usually work from 8AM to noon, to avoid the summer heat, but will accommodate groups wanting to work evening hours if arrangements are made ahead of time. Harvest continues to mid-October. However, working in the fields is not always suitable for everyone, so we put as many as we can to work in our office, preparing mailings, doing database entry, etc. which helps generate future volunteers & funding sources.

Everyone must complete a Liability Waiver. Those under 18 years of age must have a Liability Waiver form signed by a parent or guardian. The form can be downloaded from the website.
