

International Hall Living-Learning Community

Mary Baldwin College

2009-2010 Application Form

Please read before completing: As a component of the International Hall Living-Learning Community, which will be located in Memorial Residence Hall, all students living in the community will be expected to help plan and implement at least one program per semester and to attend at least one program per semester (other than the one you helped plan and implement). Programs should advance the goals of the living-learning community, namely to increase international understanding and exchange at Mary Baldwin College. Examples of such programs include: preparing a meal from your culture, watching an international film, inviting a guest speaker on a topic of international significance, and contributing to other programs on campus that promote international understanding.

Please complete this application and return it to the Director of International Programs at the Spencer Center for Civic and Global Engagement by March 8, 2009.
